Business Process Manager

Purpose of the team:

The Strategy, Research and Performance directorate ensures that Teach First can make the best of its resources to have a positive impact on the lives of children and young people from disadvantaged backgrounds. Its role is to help facilitate the development of Teach First strategy and the initiatives to implement that strategy in line with the latest evidence and research. The directorate helps drive performance at Teach First by providing access to the data, analysis and research that informs decision making as well as by serving as a centre of excellence for project management. The directorate supports the organisation to learn from what has and hasn't worked through rigorous evaluations and ensures these learnings are captured in organisational planning and future strategy.

Purpose of the role:

We are currently seeking a proactive and motivated individual who is excited by the opportunity to shape change and contribute towards the future growth of a national charity. As the Business Process Manager, you will be responsible for defining and documenting business processes as part of a transformation programme. A key focus is to align business requirements with technologies, and feed into the redesign and reimplementation of Salesforce, the charity's enterprise CRM.

This is a fantastic opportunity for someone who would like to progress their career to the next level and gain exposure influencing org-wide decision making. You will help take Teach First to a new professional level and support the organisation to think outside the box and come up with creative and resourceful solutions. You will join a fast-paced, dynamic and growing organisation that puts people at the heart of its values. We currently operate across ten geographical locations in England and Wales.

At this level you will:

Impact: Drive improvement in business processes.

Communication: Manage stakeholders across all parts of the organisation.

Innovation: Provide solutions for teams on how they could improve processes, particularly aligning to transformation of CRM technology.

Knowledge: Have a sound grasp of process mapping, management and improvement methodologies.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Working with all areas of the business to understand business needs
- Validating, improving and defining lean business processes that will enable us to meet our goals.

- Ensure processes are efficient and offer value for money
- Drive delivery of the process component of the digital transformation project
- Bridge communication between the business and technology, ensuring technologies and business strategy aligns and is reflected in processes
- Create a process inventory and documentation
- Ensure new processes are consistently rolled out and embedded, driving change where necessary.

The critical responsibilities of this role are described above. They may be subject to reasonable changes from time to time in line with business need. As part of the role you may be required to travel to other UK locations from time to time.
